Calvin, Giordano & Associates Names Richard D. Sala, AICP
Director of Administration, Redevelopment and Urban Design

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL -- AUGUST XX, 2009 -- Calvin, Giordano & Associates (CGA) is proud to announce the appointment of Richard D. Sala, AICP, as Director of Administration, Redevelopment and Urban Design.

Sala, an International City/County Management Association (ICMA) recognized professional, has a comprehensive, 23-year background in business administration, architecture, construction management and urban planning. He previously served as City Manager of North Lauderdale and Executive Director of the Hollywood Community Redevelopment Agency, where the agency's highly effective marketing and tourism programs resulted in Hollywood Beach being ranked one of America's Top Ten Beaches by Travelocity, AOL and Netscape Travel.

Sala's public sector management credentials also include supervising 350 employees and the administration of a $122 million operating and capital annual budget. He is the recipient of seven Florida Redevelopment Awards.

At CGA, Sala will be responsible for business development and service delivery in the areas of public administration, community redevelopment agencies and specialized urban design projects, as well as providing marketing to CGA's portfolio of services to local governments.
